

Directions

From the South-
Leave the M11 at junction 10, turn right to join the A505 (signposted Saffron Walden). Follow the road and take the first exit on the roundabout at Hunts Road. Keep on the A505 until you come across another roundabout and take the first exit (left) onto the A1301. After approximately 5 miles you will enter Shelford. At the traffic lights turn right onto Station Road. Proceed to the train station turn left just before you cross the tracks. Drive through the archway to get to Marble, which is on the right.

From the North-
Travel along the A14 and continue onto the M11. Leave the M11 at junction 11 and take the first exit on the roundabout signposted A1301. At the traffic signals turn right onto Addenbrooke's Road, and then turn right at the next set of traffic signals onto Shelford Road. At the third set of traffic signals turn left onto Station Road and take another left just before the train station onto Station Court. Drive through the archway to get to Marble, which is on the right.

There are beautiful cycle paths which take you from central Cambridge. Give us a call for guidance for which route to take!
